Hope For The Warriors® Announces Holiday Giving Initiative

Program Supports Families of Wounded and Fallen Service Members

WASHINGTON, D.C, December 6, 2011 – Hope For The Warriors® is pleased to announce their Holiday Giving Initiative for 2011. The Holiday Giving Initiative matches military families with donors who want to “give back” this holiday season. The organization is accepting referrals for military families that would benefit from this program. Hope For The Warriors® is also accepting donations from corporations and individuals who are interested in helping families of wounded or fallen service members. Hope For The Warriors® is a national nonprofit organization that assists combat wounded service members, their families, and families of the fallen.

This program is completely managed and coordinated by Hope For The Warriors®; all recipients are kept anonymous. Qualifying families will receive Visa gift cards by mid-December, giving parents time to visit stores and purchase gifts for their children in time for Christmas. For more information on this program, or to refer a family, contact Leslie Hunt, Hope For The Warriors® Project Manager (lhunt@hopeforthewarriors.org).

Hope For The Warriors® assists service members and veterans wounded after 9/11, their families, and families of the fallen. The organization serves members of every military branch, including reservists and the National Guard.

“Many of our families are already struggling during this time of transition and uncertainty,” Hunt said. “We want to ensure that the holiday season is a celebration for the entire family, not a source of stress.”

Individuals and corporations interested in donating to this worthwhile program can do so by visiting the Hope For The Warriors® donations page (<http://www.hopeforthewarriors.org/onlineDonate.cfm>). In the comments section, please add “Holiday Giving Initiative.” Donations can also be mailed directly to: Leslie Hunt—Holiday Giving, Hope For The Warriors®, 5101C Backlick Road, Suite 200, Annandale, VA 22003.
